

Letter from the Editor-in-Chief

With the advent of the 5G network and the advancement of Internet of Things technology, the smart 5G world composed of smart city, smart factory, smart home, and so forth has begun in earnest. For a successful smart 5G world, it is necessary to research and develop innovative Internet services and security technologies, which is clearly a core mission of Journal of Internet Services and Information Security (JISIS). Over the past seven years, JISIS has made a significant contribution to the field of Internet services and information security by publishing 7 volumes consisting with high-qualified papers. Therefore, it is highly expected that this journal will also play a meaningful role in the forthcoming smart 5G world.

On the other hand, our purpose is that JISIS is included in SCI(E), Scopus, and EI, the most prestigious journal index services in the world. To accomplish this, we invited the following world-class scholars as the advisory board member or the associate editor:

Advisory Board

Mohsen Guizani, University of Idaho, USA
Fang-Yie Leu, Tunghai University, Taiwan
Victor C.M. Leung, The University of British Columbia, Canada
Yi-Bing Lin, University System of Taiwan, Taiwan
Witold Pedrycz, University of Alberta Canada
Ravi Sandhu, University of Texas at San Antonio, USA
Jinshu Su, National University of Defense Technology, China
Willy Susilo, University of Wollongong, Australia
Zita A. Vale, Institute of Engineering-Polytechnic of Porto, Portugal

Associate Editors

Yuh-Shyan Chen, National Taipei University, Taiwan
Kim-Kwang Raymond Choo, The University of Texas at San Antonio, USA
Xiaojiang (James) Du, Temple University, USA
Edgar Weippl, SBA Research, Austria
Fatos Xhafa, Universitat Politècnica de Catalunya, Spain
Yang Xiang, Swinburne University of Technology, Australia
Daphne Yao, Virginia Tech, USA
Sherali Zeadally, University of Kentucky, USA

Clearly, JISIS is powered by these world-class scholars, thus being expected to be considerably improved into a top-class journal in its area. Without missing this chance, I would like to extend my sincere thanks to them for kindly accepting to work for JISIS, which is obviously my honor and privilege.

With the expectation mentioned above, I would like to proudly start the 8th volume by publishing its first issue including 4 papers, each of which was carefully peer-reviewed.
